

Getting Started with Renzulli Learning 10 Easy Steps

Week #1	Profiler	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Take the Profiler Assessment of your Interests, Learning Styles, and Expression Styles Read Your Results
Week #2	Journal of Profiler Results	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Click on the Journal icon at the top of your window. Create a Journal entry on how you feel about your Profile Results. Do you agree or disagree with what it says about you? Was there anything you were surprised to learn? Use details to support your thoughts. Click Save. I will be able to read and respond to your Journal.
Week #3-4	Explore My Enrichment Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explore the My Enrichment Activities Section Select a category and one resource to complete a Self-Assessment. Add any resources you really like to your Favorites. Rate a resource that you really like so other students will be able to find it easily.
Week #5-6	Choose an Enrichment Activity that interest you. Example: Virtual Field Trips, Mathematics, Science, History and Social Studies, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Go to My Enrichment Activities Choose an icon of your choice -Week 5 Choose another icon of your choice – Week 6 You might choose to narrow down to one Interest Area using the drop-down menu View at least three different activities - Week 5 View at least three different activities - Week 6 Click the Journal icon. Journal Entry: Which of the activities that you explored would you like to explore more extensively? Explain why with at least 3 reasons and supporting details.
Week #7	Differentiation Search Engine	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Choose the Search Option Type in a keyword to search the enrichment activities. Choose Advance Search: Click Advance Search to narrow your search results and conduct a more advanced search of the Enrichment Database. The results will be aligned to your profile!

Week #8	E-books and Journaling	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Go to your differentiated search engine • Type the ebook or audio book into the search engine • Choose your book • Journal Entry: Discuss the book in your journal. Would you like to recommend it to your classmates?
Week #9 Renzulli Learning's PBL is the ideal place to help your students engage in problem-based learning and passion projects.	Introduce Project-Based Learning This is just an introduction to Renzulli PBL. Projects are meant to be long term	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Go to My Projects • Watch the Student Tutorial Video • Following the tutorial choose Create Your Own or Try one of our Super Starter. Your project should focus on a passion subject. • Once you add a project, Renzulli Learning organizes the steps in an orderly format for you to simply complete the steps. • When your product is complete, record presentation and add it to the Virtual Showcase!
Week #10 The RL PBL is student driven and can be utilized for students working independently and in collaborative groups.	Introduce Global Collaboration This is just an introduction to Global Collaboration. Global Collaboration is meant to be long term.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Give your students the opportunity to collaborate on projects with students in different countries or students across the United States. It's easy to access and implementate. • What could be more powerful than a group of students brainstorming and providing solutions to a global issue. • Join an already established group or create your own collaborative group for others to participate. 